

CV / Graeme Hogg / 22nd April 1967 / graemehogg@bristol-channel.org /
Decade      Activity      Image

1960's      Birth, childhood in Kent, spent most time playing.

1970's      Walked 3 miles to school everyday, struggled with left handedness.
Won first prize in school Santa Claus model competition.

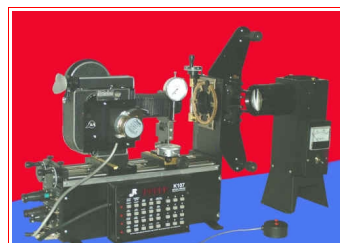

1980's      Left home for London, worked in film studios in Soho, dropped out and lived in bender in Wales, moved to Bristol to study Circus.

1990's      Travelled world developing the art of Stilts, made films, ran film screening event called Club Rombus, had children (2 boys), started the Cube Cinema.
Started making Sonic Art using name 'Vi'.

2000's      Dedicated life to Cube Cinema, developed film and creative programmes there, started making films again.

2010's      The best way to predict the future is to invent it.